Housing and Urban Development's SuperNOFA. The Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) unveiled its SuperNOFA on May 4, 2008. This year in order to participate in the HUD grants program, applicants need to be registered with Grants.gov. To learn how to register, find and apply for SuperNOFA 2008 grant opportunities, go to: http://www.hud.gov/grants/index.cfm. HUD now requires all applicants to submit their funding requests electronically through www.grants.gov. This electronic submission process is part of the President's management agenda and will significantly streamline funding for states, local governments and nonprofit grassroots organizations that house and serve lower income families living in their communities. Each program covered by the SuperNOFA has its own eligibility, deadline and application requirements. Program areas include:

- Community Development Technical Assistance
- Doctoral Programs
- Fair Housing Initiatives
- Housing Counseling
- Healthy Homes and Lead Hazard Control
- Economic Development
- Public Housing Resident Opportunity and Self-Sufficiency
- Targeted and Assisted Housing
- Continuum of Care Homeless Assistance

Note:
- Many of these grant programs are subject to "Intergovernmental Review" under Executive Order 12372. Please go to http://opgd.dc.gov, under "Services", select "State Single Point of Contact".

Training

Future Executive Directors Fellowship. The Nonprofit Roundtable of Greater Washington, which works to build the strength, influence, and visibility of the nonprofit sector in Greater Washington, DC, has announced the launch of the Future Executive Directors Fellowship. This new leadership development program will provide intensive peer coaching, mentoring, skills development, and ongoing support to prepare mid- and senior-level nonprofit professionals to become leaders at small or medium-sized community-based organizations in Greater Washington. The fellowship is a nine-month program that begins with eleven full-day learning sessions conducted over a six-month period and concludes with three months of ongoing support facilitated by the Nonprofit Roundtable. Eligible applicants include nonprofit professionals who possess several years of nonprofit work experience, have managerial experience (which may include experience in the private or public sectors), and indicate the intention to become a nonprofit executive director or CEO of a small to medium-sized community-based organization in Greater Washington as the next step in their career. The deadline for applications is May 30, 2008. For program guidelines, schedule, and application instructions, go to: http://www.nonprofitroundtable.org/.

Grant Reviewers. Serve DC is seeking individuals to review grant proposals for the 2008 AmeriCorps*State funding competition to support Volunteers In Public Schools (VIPS). This is an excellent opportunity to network with colleagues in the national service and education fields, learn more about the grant-making process, develop your own grant-writing skills, learn about exciting initiatives happening in local schools, and contribute your knowledge and experience to Serve DC's efforts to select high-quality service-learning programs for AmeriCorps funding. The deadline to apply is May 19, 2008. Interested individuals should forward resume to: Kristen Henry, Serve DC, 441 4th Street, Suite 1140N, Washington, DC 20001. For further information, contact Ms. Henry at (202) 727-8003 or kristen.henry@dc.gov; or go to: http://serve.dc.gov/cncs/site/default.asp.
